Dewey F. Bartlett, Jr.
MAYOR

March 8, 2013

Greetings,

As a Tulsan and as your mayor, I am proud to be part of a thriving community that's focused on moving forward and making Tulsa an even better place to live, work, and play.

We know that growth comes from supporting our local entrepreneurs and small business owners through the City of Tulsa's Building Resources in Developing and Growing Enterprises (BRIDGE) program. We provide individuals with the necessary tools and opportunities to develop the contacts and skills needed to secure contracts in both the public and private sectors of our city.

The revitalization of Tulsa continues gaining momentum. New businesses are establishing themselves and new collaborations and partnerships are being formed. From the continued success of the BOK Center to the emerging Brady Arts District, downtown is experiencing a building boom like it hasn't seen in several decades. This certainly makes it an exciting time to live and do business in Tulsa.

As we look to the future, our entrepreneurs and small business owners will continue leading the way with their "can do" spirit and the economic drive which makes our city a shining example, not only to the nation, but also to the rest of the world.

Whether we're promoting our potential workforce, business programs or citizens, Tulsa is making great strides in creating an environment where jobs can grow and our economy can expand.

Best regards,

Dewey F. Bartlett, Jr.
Mayor of Tulsa

HUMAN RIGHTS DEPARTMENT
OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

Dear Colleagues:

It is that time of year again and plans for the 6th annual Building Resources in Diversity and Growing Enterprises (BRIDGE) event are coming together. The event will be March 19, 2013 at the Tulsa Convention Center – North Ballroom from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Included in this year's activities will be presentations from some very successful BRIDGE members, as well as testimonies from flourishing businesses who have graduated from BRIDGE.

Contractors throughout the City, as well as the region, will be in booths prepared to meet present BRIDGE members, as well as small minority, women and disadvantaged businesses who are interested in becoming BRIDGE members. Businesses will provide contractors with a Capability Statement. This document provides business information including the company's description, mission statement, past work performance, core competences and peer partners they that have work with.

The BRIDGE program is not only committed to fostering an inclusive and competitive business atmosphere to minorities, women and disadvantaged businesses but creates an environment that helps to certify these business enterprises, increase their capacity, grow revenue and enhance their credibility.

I encourage you to visit our BRIDGE program at the following location and consider being a part of this exciting opportunity for our City.

PURPOSE OF THE BRIDGE PROGRAM

BRIDGE promotes connections between owners of developing and growing businesses with larger businesses in the area. Efforts are focused on enhancing procurement opportunities.

HISTORY OF THE PROGRAM

The Building Resources in Developing and Growing Enterprises (BRIDGE) program was established on January 30, 2007. Effective September 1, 2011, the certification program was expanded to include two areas: M/FBE and BRIDGE.DB. A BRIDGE.DB is a disadvantaged, non-minority business enterprise which typically has a net worth of $750,000 or less.

BENEFITS OF CERTIFYING

Certified businesses enjoy benefits that help them build business capacity, navigate the world of business, and network with other businesses.

Educational Opportunities: Many organizations put on educational programs, training seminars, and business development conferences designed to teach small businesses how to negotiate the business world and become successful. BRIDGE provides a “one-stop” information center through the Human Rights Department so that certified businesses can stay informed about educational programs around the City.

Partnering: Developing businesses confront a variety of challenges. Finding resources that are most relevant to them and knowing how to access them can be a daunting task. Business owners can also benefit by sharing information about their challenges and solutions with one another.

Networking: Business people often feel more comfortable doing business with individuals they already know. Establishing and nurturing personal relationships is thus a critical part of developing a successful business. BRIDGE offers opportunities for certified business owners to meet other businesspeople with whom they might partner on future projects.

BRIDGE.DB and M/FBE: The City of Tulsa is committed to supporting contracting and subcontracting opportunities for M/FBEs and has established aspirational utilization goals for procurement and business categories of 5-10%.

How Can General Contractors Participate?

We invite contractors to participate in all aspects of the program. Contractors and contractor associations that offer educational and training opportunities may advertise their events through the program.

1. Contractors can serve as BRIDGE partners
2. Sponsor or co-sponsor networking events
3. Advertise their associations' educational and training opportunities through BRIDGE
4. Solicit BRIDGE participants for contracting opportunities

HELPFUL INFORMATION FOR CONTRACTORS ON THE DAVIS-BACON ACT

The Davis-Bacon Act applies to all federally funded or assisted contracts over $2,000, and all subcontracts regardless of dollar amount and specifies that not less than the prevailing wage be paid to laborers and mechanics employed on the project. Prevailing wages, as well as fringe benefits, are determined by the Secretary of Labor, in accordance with the provisions of the Davis-Bacon Act.

The Copeland "Anti-Kickback" Act provides that each contractor and subcontractor is prohibited from coercing, by any means, any person employed in the construction, completion, or repair of public work, to give up any part of the compensation to which they are entitled. The Act standardizes a uniform forty (40) hour work week with 1 1/2 times the basic rate of pay for all work in excess of that standard. The Act also assures that no laborer or mechanic be required to work in surroundings or under conditions that are unsanitary, hazardous, or dangerous to health and safety. All subcontractors are subject to the same provisions of this contract as are prime contractors. The applicable wage rates are required to be posted by the contractor at the site in a prominent place where it can easily be seen by the workers. It is important that all employees be made aware of their respective job classifications and hourly pay rate for this project. The classification of a worker depends on the job done, as determined by the tools of the trade. Workers may work in more than one classification, but must either be paid the higher of the two classifications or accurate daily time records must be kept of hours worked in each classification, and initialed by the employee at the end of the work day.

All workers employed in the construction of the project will be paid unconditionally and not less often than once a week, without subsequent deduction or rebate on any account (except such payroll deductions as are permitted by regulations issued by the Secretary of Labor under the Copeland Act 29 CFR Part 3), the full amounts due at time of payment computed at wage rates not less than those contained in the wage determination decision of the Secretary of Labor. Workers must be paid the full amount due, regardless of any contractual agreement. This also applies to subcontractors.

Payrolls will be completed weekly on Form WH347-48. The following information shall be completed: name, address, and social security number (required the first time a person appears on the payroll, and the name only thereafter). Fringe benefits need to be designated on Form WH348 (this form is on the back of WH347), and if benefits are paid to an approved plan, they must be broken down individually on Form WH348. Payrolls and all other reports are due seven (7) working days after the end of the work week. Failure to comply with these deadlines may result in funds being withheld. If violations of any of the preceding legislation occurs during the project, funds may be withheld until compensation or corrective action is made. Serious violations may result in a contractor being debarred from future City and Federal contracts.
